

Midwest Regional Medical Academy

Skills Checklist

The preceptor will evaluate the degree to which you have met the skill requirements below. You will have the opportunity to demonstrate your skill in these areas through:

- A = the preceptor's observation of you during a patient encounter;
- B = demonstration in a simulation lab; or
- C = your verbal explanation to the preceptor.

Skill	Unable to Demonstrate	Needs Improvement	Demonstrates Correctly
Provide explanation of role and what medical evaluation will consist of when speaking with caregiver and patient.
Obtain health history to include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • ROS • Health History • Immunization Status • History of Event • Living Environment • Safety Assessment
Demonstrate how to document encounter with patient
Discuss triaging based on acuity
Demonstrate head-to-toe exam, including anogenital exam to include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Labial separation • Labial traction • Supine frog-leg position • Prone knee-chest position
Demonstrate correct use of colposcope
Demonstrate correct use of digital camera
Demonstrate correct technique in collecting STI evidence

Midwest Regional Medical Academy

Skill	Unable to Demonstrate	Needs Improvement	Demonstrates Correctly
Identify and interpret genital anatomy, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Labia majora • Labia minora • Clitoral hood • Clitoris • Vestibule • Urethral meatus • Fossa navicularis • Posterior fourchette • Hymen • Vagina • Cervix • Cervical os • Perineum • Anus • Penis • Scrotum • Testes
Differentiate between the following terms: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • normal exam • normal variants • findings consistent with other medical condition • no expert consensus • diagnostic findings consistent with trauma/abuse
Describe who MDT partners are and their roles, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • forensic interviewer • child protection • law enforcement • victim advocate • prosecutor • their role as medical provider
Differentiate between forensic interview and medical history
Discuss expectations of subpoena and court testimony			